The best time to begin your search for a good agent or manager is now. Right now! You have exactly 30 days before the submission deadline to find a manager/agent. After this 30 day period, you may be frozen out of the management/agent world. Starting Your Search Now is the best time to begin your search for a manager/agent. This is because you have a maximum of 30 days to find a manager/agent. In this period you can be working hard with a manager/agent and still qualify for a First Prize. After that 30 days, you may be frozen out of the management/agent world. The whole 30 day period is important. You may be working hard in a Manager/Agent situation but still not meet the criteria for a First Prize. However you must start your search for a good manager/agent now. You have 30 days to have all the hard work done for you. Just put the word out to your friends that you are looking for a manager/agent and see what happens. Get your friends to spread the word to their friends. After 30 days of hard work, the word of mouth will be your manager/agent. You can also go online and search for the best managers/agents in your local area. You can do this by searching on the internet. You should also search for the top 10 management/agents in your area. When you do this you will also be able to see how much money they charge for their services. The more money they charge the more work it will take to get them to take on your project. The Internet is the best place to find the top management/agents in your area. All you have to do is go on the internet and start searching. When you find a manager/agent that you like, you can email them directly. Tell them you want to work with them and that you have found them on the internet. Most management/agents will read the email and reply to you. You should use the contact form on the website and give them all the information you can about yourself. Also tell them if you are serious about the management/agent. This will save them a lot of time when you go to them. You also want to send them a copy of the DVD title and trailer, if you have it. If you do not have it, you can always get a copy from the manufacturer. Most managers/agents will tell you the first thing that 82157476af
